Chairperson Dennis C. report 2014 01

I have just a couple of things to cover this month

There are a lot of positions that need to be filled in areas of service, please let us break the cycle in the fellowship of 10% of the people doing 90% of the work. Positions are Area Vice Chair , RCM 2, CRCNA Liaison, positions for panel members at the H&I level and various Sub Committee volunteers ... Kick start your recovery in the Keester and step up!!!

This last month we had the CAR report take place on 12/7/13 and our RCM will fill us in on what took place, as well the New Year's Eve Bash was a smash, with great speakers, dinner and a dance.. There is also the Valentine Day event which will be coming up soon

There is 1 thing that never stops surprising me, and that is the Dedication and Devotion that all the Sub Committee members of the Mile High Area perform and display And as always would like to thank all Mile High Area Sub committees for helping us to carry the message to the addict that still suffers

RCM report by Al G., Jan. 2014

The Rocky Mountain Zonal Forum took place here in Denver on December 7th. It was attended by NA members from Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, Utah and Colorado. This forum was setup as a CAR workshop. It was good to see a handful of members from the Mile High Area show up and participate. Again the CAR has been released and available to view online or download. Here is a link: http://na.org/?ID=conference-index

In April the regional assembly will be here in Denver on the 19th. The decisions on the CAR will be tallied at this assembly. Based on this, it would probably be a good idea to have our RD (Regional Delegate) for the Colorado Region come to area in February and present a workshop on the CAR. At that time we will have summaries of the CAR that can used to make our decisions.

Thanks for letting me be of service

Al G.

RCM1 – Mile High Area

Questions for RCM:

Tamra: Did we get a flier? [for the Conference Agenda Report Presentation and Workshop at March's Area.] So folks people can attend it? Can we announce it?

Al: A flier is not a bad idea. I could produce one and give it to Karl for emailing.

Tamra: Put one on the Activities webpage, too.

Dennis C.: They've done a good job in the past of presenting the CAR.

Dennis C.: Get with Karl and do an email blast.

Krys: I'll have it attached to my report to Karl.

2. Bus Kiosk Helpline Poster

Dan M.: I was tasked by this body to renew our relationship with Sean over at Outdoor Ads. I talked to him during December. If we move ahead with contract, it'll be a 1-year contract. Discounted down from per annum $4,500 with a $3,000 discount to $1,500 per year. It will receive an estimated 3,000 views per day to as many as 18,000 views per day.

Modern things: Debit card auto-withdrawal. Payment terms were an issue for our past relationship. It depends on availability: If we want poster to stay at one kiosk for a year, it could.

Design: It might be in their possession. It's a small-potato thing--I'll look into it.

$1,500 per year is the discounted cost. They would absorb the cost of design. They are willing to enter into a healthy relationship, giving us bells and whistles I did not even ask for

It would start in February or Feb / Mar.

Al G.: Discount?

Dan: We get a $3,000 discount. So that's $375/quarter, or $125/month. That is, $1,500 annually. I had to hold his hand to the stove.

Dennis: One location?

Dan: I believe it is a 1-sided bus kiosk sign. Rare.

Dennis C.: "Views" is defined as?

Dan: People actually seeing our phone number on the poster.

Krys: Think about people who ride by-- they count too.

Dennis: I don't pay attention.

Dan: People going by and physically seeing the poster.

Krys: Point of info: At two CRCNAs ago, we did a survey: "How many people had seen our poster, our big billboard?" There were more than I expected. It was up in the hundreds.

Eric: We have a choice where the poster goes?

Dan: Yes. Most are 4' x 6'. We are nurturing this relationship back to health. It's the "Drug Prob? We can help" design with our Helpline number.

Terry C.: My concern is, are we using dollars wisely? Krys had told me that folks calling the help line were saying they'd gotten our number from the kiosk poster. I was skeptical about it, but now I'm for it.

Dan: I want you to understand I am going to sign a contract for 1 year for $1,500. Any questions? [There are none.] Then I will move forward.

Happy New Year to everyone!!

Our 5th Annual New Year's Bash was a success. Thank you to all of you that attended and we hope that you all had a wonderful time and thank you to our speakers for sharing their stories with us.

There are fliers on the back table for our Valentines's Event on February 15th here at Mariposa. Please let me explain that the Speed Meeting is NOT for people to find relationships but to give us a chance to introduce ourselves and make our circle of recovery a little bigger.

We are currently planning for our next event which will be NA's Got Talent on April 26th here at Mariposa as well. Fliers for this event will be available at area next month.

Thank you for letting me be of service,

Anna B.

Spoken Report: There's a sign-up sheet going around for folks to get their events on the Activities' Calendar for coming month.

Synergy Boy's Youth Facility needs more volunteers- Background Check.

Marvin Foote Adolescent -- needs more volunteers- Background Check.

Excelsior Girls Youth Facility -- Volunteers with no criminal background

Douglas County Women's -- Starting the clearance procedure starting the first of the year-PC available

Arapahoe County Men's -- Starting clearance procedure starting the first of the year – PC available.

We have appointed an ad hoc committee for the H&I Event Coordinator position and we approved preliminary guidelines today. This position includes attending all of the Mile High Area Events to attract more volunteers for H&I.

The H&I Subcommittee will continue to have a book drive that will supply Basic Texts to several of the local Mile High Area prison and jail facilities.

We also are having an H&I T-Shirt logo contest and we will be having a fund raiser by selling these T-shirts once the logo is selected. We have fliers here today so please spread the word.

We are still in need more volunteers for the Jefferson County Jail, as we no longer have a panel coordinator for the men's or the women's side. We are now starting to have consistent meetings every Thursday, and we will be back on track as soon as we have panel coordinators for the facility. We have applications here today which requires 5 years off paper and 3 years clean.

We now have a new application for Denver County and are looking for volunteers with a year off paper and a year clean. So if any one here is willing to carry our message to the addicts that are incarcerated – We need your service!!!

The next Mile High Area H&I/ Service training is next month on Sunday, February 2, 2014 at 11:00am. Please announce at your home group that we need your help, as service will help keep you clean!!!!

Spoken Report and questions: Douglas Co. has a men's meeting now; we're starting women soon.

Paul U.: Is Mile High Area supplying literature for DOC (Dept. Of Corrections) meetings?

Terry: Yes, for Denver women's prison and Camp George West in Golden. We've been doing Denver Women's Prison for 8 years.

Paul: So we're not getting compensation from region?

Mile High Area Phone Line Subcommittee Report January 5, 2014

Phone line Subcommittee met today at 12:00 & participated in the PR group meeting at 11:00.

We had 2 newly trained volunteers this month. So very close to a filled volunteer schedule, VERY EXCITING!!!

We had 14 positions open last month. We have filled 7 volunteer positions, leaving us with only 8 positions available. We on the Phone Line Subcommittee would like to sincerely thank everyone for your efforts on the Helpline. We only had three missed calls this month. Your efforts on answering these calls have been OUTSTANDING! It's truly an honor to be on board with all of you folks!!!

The Help Line had 501 phone calls this period- WOO! HOO!

Our Mission on the phone line is to direct the potential newcomer to a meeting or direct questions about our fellowship to the appropriate subcommittee(s). With the cold weather here, it is a great service commitment that can be done in the comfort of your home, walking the dog, grocery shopping etc, etc, etc. Can't say it enough, there's nothing like seeing that addict walk into a meeting and watch them pick up their 1-year key tag 365 days later.

After reviewing the minute log, please know the average call is only approximately 6 minutes . . .

We updated all contact names, numbers, addresses, meetings & events on the Help line this month.

PLEASE If your home group is having an event, PLEASE give a flier or information to myself or Paul A., the Phone Line vice-chair, so we can be sure it's on the event line, and we can better help for a greater attendance, we sometimes may miss just an announcement at AREA.

LET'S KEEP ROCKIN' THE PHONE LINE FELLOW VOLUNTEERS

In most loving & humble service,

Tamra 720.296.9580

"You and I have been given through illness, through suffering and through disease a talent for helping other human beings like ourselves – let's never forget that." – Jimmy K. 1974

Ouestions:

Al: You were asking about CAR report, getting it on the Event Line. Tamra: Yes, I received it. I like to get it on there as soon as possible.

Public Information Subcommittee, Chairperson Dan M. Sunday, January 5, 2014

Email address: napidenver@hotmail.com

Meeting Location & Time: 1212 Mariposa, 12noon before Area Sundays

Hello from your Public Information committee! My name is Dan and I'm an addict.

We recently delivered 10 Basic Texts to the JeffCo Library System so that all 10 branches will have a copy of this life-saving literature. This donation was made possible through approved Second Quarter funds from 7th Tradition donations passed down the service structure from your home groups. Thanks so much for helping us fulfill our primary purpose!

We discussed moving forward with bus stop kiosk advertising earlier in today's meeting. With the new information I reviewed with you all earlier today and as previously voted on by the Area body a few months ago, I will move forward with signing a 1-year contract and report back to Area the location of our first advertisement and a picture of the kiosk too.

Please pass along an invitation to anyone in our Fellowship, with any length of clean time, to attend our monthly Public Information meeting on Area Sundays at 12 noon. We haven't had attendees to hold a meeting for the past 3 months (November and December and now January). Please spread the word that every N.A. member has a place in the Public Information committee and we would be delighted to serve along with you; carrying our primary purpose to those that may not be aware of our life-saving Fellowship.

A variety of rewarding service opportunities await you as Public Information fulfills our primary purpose of carrying the message to addicts who still suffer. Opportunities await in contributing to projects already in motion and projects we are trying to start but have limited resources to begin.

- Circling back with our previous donations of literature at the Denver and Aurora libraries.
- Stocking literature racks at facilities around the metro Denver area
- Future booth staffing at events in summer 2014 as well as presentations to the public and other entities

In humble, loving service,

Dan M. (personal cell for any inquiries -->720.569.7746 or napidenver@hotmail.com)

Training Subcommittee Report, Patty P. Jan. 5, 2014, George W. for Patty

Four received training.

I want to see all the bases are covered so that they are ready for mentoring.

Website Subcommittee, Chairperson Mike H. Jan. 5, 2014

Meeting Location & Time: Called by request

I had 5,000 copies of the most recent meeting list printed for $241.36.

The website email (milehina@nacolorado.org) received five requests from addicts seeking help and looking for meetings.

There is a meeting list update sheet going around, please return it to me.

There is also a sheet for listing open service positions at the Area and subcommittee levels as well as for specific events or groups. The initial version of this page is on the area website. You can access it from the home page of the website or the Trusted Servants page. I will be working on adding it to the menu system.

I will be working on improving the online meeting list technology we use. Another addict with more specific web development experience than I have will be working with me on this. I will also be working with the regional webservant to try and better integrate the area and regional lists.

Please submit requests for changes to the website or event fliers by email to milehina@nacolorado.org

Thank you for allowing me to serve,

Mike H. MHASC Website

Website Report Discussion:

Karl: Tim L. told me Sunday Evening on the Hill has changed its start time to 6:45 pm Sunday evenings.

[Somebody]: Sisters In Recovery is no longer meeting.

Terry C.: Xenia Xanadu is no longer being held.

Mike H.: Service Opportunities page: if you are a committee etc. you can describe the position. If you want to put personal info on there you can; I don't really recommend it. I'm starting to work with another addict who has very good web development skills so I'm working with him. If you have event fliers send them to me.

Public Relations Subcommittee report, Krys G. Jan. 5, 2014

The Public Relations Subcommittee met at 1:00 pm with all subcommittee chairpersons and discussed the needs of each committee. H&I is working with the Activities Subcommittee to create a Buy-A-Book for H&I table and to help promote the T-shirt contest.

Web has implemented the service bulletin board. Please take a look and let people know where they can find service. This Bulletin Board is a list of service opportunities.

I completed the first draft of the social media guidelines attached to this report. Please contact me at the brake to arrange the next ad hoc meeting to review the guidelines.

Krys

PR Spoken report and questions:

PR supported the Training Session—that was awesome.

Al: The intro to service training takes how long?

Krys: A little longer than I'd like, a little over an hour. But it is comprehensive, you get the training, so you can function on any committee. It is all based on our Traditions, so you get an excellent view of those.

Al: Is one person doing the training?

Krys: Two. In the future I see one person taking it on.

Dennis C.: Is the training chairperson doing the training?

Krys: The training chair does the GSR training exclusively now.

Al: I don't know if they do overlap.

Krys: Umbrella training is at 11:00 am; The Public Relations umbrella meeting is at 1:00 PM. We might have to change the time.

Terry C.: What a great team effort to get this training universal. Get it down to 45 minutes. It'll be perfected. What a great job you've done. I don't announce H&I. I announce service, service, service, . . .

Krys: If you are an old hand, please come even if you have lots of experience, you will hear something new.

CRCNA 28 Liaison Rpt:

The liaison position is currently VACANT.

Please note CRCNA 28 committees have started meeting. It would be of great benefit to the Liaison to be attending these meetings, learning the CRCNA ropes, and making contributions to what CRCNA 28 will be like.

[Back to Public Relations Report questions:]

Jennette: Outreach is in the training?

Krys: In the past we've had an Outreach person, so as trainees pour out of training, someone would be there to talk to them about Outreach opportunities.

Krys: If you want to see our billboard, I have it on my computer. C'mon over and look.

11. Ten Minute Break

We take our 10 min. break at 3:02 pm.

12. Service Prayer

Kirk reads Service Prayer.

Dear God.

Grant us the knowledge that we may act according to your divine precepts. Instill in us a sense of your purpose, make us servants of your will and grant us a bond of selflessness that this may truly be your work, not ours, so that no addict, anywhere, need die from the horrors of addiction.

- As adapted from the Introduction Section in our Basic Text, Fifth Edition.

Karl S.: Regarding the Activities Calendar: Has everybody who wishes to get their event on the calendar gotten a chance to get it on the sign-up sheet?

13. Treasurer Report of Funds

(Detailed Spreadsheet, see page 23 below. Closing Treasurer's Report, see page 27 below.)

14. New Business / Motions

None.

15. Disbursement Of Funds Outside Of Budgeted Items

George: There is no disbursement of funds outside of budgeted items.

16. Sharing session

I. Activities Accountability Of Funds (Chair & Treasurer)

Dennis: Regarding accountability of funds from the Activities Subcommittee. Sean P. is willing to step up and be the interim treasurer for Activities. There have been a couple of mishaps with the funds. There is a single point of accountability. We are wanting feedback from the area. The interim treasurer, Sean P., and Chairperson Anna would count the money together.

Last year, there was a mishap with a considerable amount. This year there was another mishap. So we need to address that so we know what we're doing. So I'm looking for questions and feedback.

Krys: Who can sign on that account?

George W.: Me.

Anna B.: I have no access to the account. I just specify what they are for, I've pretty much been doing the Activities' treasurer position myself for almost four years. Having other service positions and my life, it gets to be a lot--I need help. Sean P. has stepped up and is willing to help with that.

Dennis: The issue is around the money going into the account, not so much the money that's gotten into the account.

How much was lost last year? I know you reimbursed it.

Anna: I left money in the cart at King Soopers. It was during the Valentine's Day Dance: $183. Nobody returned it, so I reimbursed it.

Dennis: This year it was $300?

Anna: Yes. I have visitors, roommates. Being the only person who's ever been treasurer, I've been hiding it in house. Not even my husband knows where it is. It grew legs and walked off. My husband reimbursed it out of his check.

It's to the point that I want to resign. I don't want to be a part of the treasurer end of things. It's the second time it's happened. That's too many. It makes me uncomfortable. Thank you, Dennis C. for talking to Sean. I now have somebody to sit down with after events and go over receipts; I don't have to worry about doing it myself. Sometimes we bring in a lot of money, I'm not going to do it with a lot of people around. I won't be solely responsible anymore. Sean is willing to step up.

Krys: We can look to the CRCNA guidelines—they are well-rehearsed guidelines, that'd be a good place to start.

Lindsay: Activities has guidelines?

Anna: Yes, but those are about clean time and duties.

George: The quickest solution is once funds are disbursed, maybe a temporary account with the bank can be created on the fly. We'd deposit the money there, after it was withdrawn, we'd close the account.

Anna: I have something.

Geo: Anytime we put on a major event . . .

Anna: I wouldn't have to be hiding it in my house, and nobody would be able to find it.

Tamra: I've worked on Unity Day. I'll share my experience. We have a bank account. We always have two people counting the money. We count it throughout the day of the event. It's simply a big manila folder. We write the time, how much was collected, what was purchased. Then at the end of the day the money would go directly into an account.

Krys: That's similar to how CRCNA works.

Anna: Lock boxes? Can we get one of those?

George: That could be part of your supplies.

I got these at Office Depot for around $19 a piece.

Anna: The New Year's Bash really freaked me out. All three chairs from the different areas were at the table, and they would take the bag and run over here and over there, and I'd be like Oh My God!

Krys: We need guidelines.

Dennis C.: It's probably not addict proof. If it's missing out of your house.

Anna: I'm just going to use the account that I created for the New Years' Event.

George: If somebody is authorized . . .

Terry C.: I saw this at New Years'. Regarding the money. Nobody mistrusts you, Anna. We trust you. But with that much money, we need to have two people. When you lost that money in the shopping cart, you should have come to this body—you should not have had to reimburse that money.

Erin: For many banking institutions, there's a night deposit option.

George: More and more banks don't have those, because of break-ins.

Dennis: I'm asking [. . .]

[Secretary doesn't record several minutes of discussion. He's hunting for the Lit Subcom's report.]

Terry: How much was brought in from the New Years' event?

Answer: $3,305.23.

George: Outbound expenses were $2,552. Our take was $251.97

Dennis C.: This is a tri-area event.

George: $753 plus profit.

Anna: We split it three ways equally. The $300 is separate from that.

Dennis C.: But where are we going to get the money?

Krys: I care about you, Anna, I feel for you. But when I take on NA responsibilities, I'm the point of accountability for funds like this.

You should reimburse your husband. I wish I could tell you something different. This group feels sorry for you, but you have to bite the bullet. If there are folks walking around with boxes of t-shirts or tickets, there's a lotta people who have lost stuff and have had to make good on it.

Dennis C.: There's a person in the room who lost something, but came in, addressed the group and reimbursed the money. It's about our primary purpose.

Regarding Western Learning Days. We had – they were held personally responsible.

Q: So you're missing $89?

Dennis C.: No, she's missing $300.

Anna: That's okay. If I need to pay him back, I will.

George: Nothing prevents people from helping you.

David: Could we ask the body to acknowledge a charitable donation?

George: We can't do that. We're one of the few areas in the Colorado Region that is not classified as such at this time.

Terry: I'm for the underdog. If people want to personally donate . . .

Dennis C.: If people want to donate . . .

Anna: I'm not asking this for me. My husband and I, we have our own accounts, our own funds. If I have to pay him back, that's okay. He's not a part of this fellowship, but he supports me in it.

II. Area minutes not being distributed in a timely fashion.

Joe: Regarding minutes. Can we get them out sooner?

George: I had a lotta pressure at work.

Joe: It's two months in a row that we didn't have the minutes by our group conscience.

Karl: Our guidelines say the secretary should distribute the minutes no later than 10 days after area. I can do that.

George: Do it as an amendment.

Karl: So, I can distribute a draft at the 10-day guideline limit, and later when I get the several treasury-related reports I can distribute a complete draft of the minutes.

17. Action Items for next month

None.

18. Closing Treasurer's Balance $_____

George: Literature report--don't have it. World Services invoice was not in mail, so I can't provide that yet.

19. Announcements / Reminders for next Month

Anna: Any chairpersons who have a key to our storage need to make sure it gets locked properly. Otherwise they will cut the lock off, and we have to go get a new lock and new keys.

George: There will be a sign-in sheet for folks who have been into the storage so we can keep track.

20. Adjournment

Dennis C.: Adjournment?

Yes!

We adjourn at 3:55 pm.

We circle up, and Kevin leads us in a moment of silence and the 3rd Step Prayer.

Sorry for the report being so late I've scheduled the Monday after area of this month so that I can start to take care of the reports the day after area.

Also per bank policy we will no longer be able to accept torn bills unless at least

75% of the bill and both serial numbers are present

If you have any questions please feel free to ask as always.

Thank you for allowing me to serve, George W
